COPA provides service and support to adults 55+ who struggle with addictions (including gambling) to help them manage their day-to-day responsibilities and stay in their homes.

Serves individuals with:

- Substance misuse issues
- Concurrent disorders (substance misuse and mental illness)
- Problem gambling
- Issues related to addictions, aging and marginalization (e.g. early onset dementia, physical health, social isolation, poverty)
- And who live within the Toronto Central LHIN boundaries. Priority is given to individuals living between Yonge St. and Kipling Ave., and Eglinton Ave and Lakeshore Blvd.

Application forms can be found at
